

DOWNHAM SCHOOL

Publication Scheme on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available in paper form.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

At Downham School we aim:

- To provide a curriculum which is balanced and broadly based and which provides opportunities for all pupils to learn and to achieve, promoting spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, and preparing them for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of life.
- To provide a caring and happy learning environment which creates an atmosphere of purpose and security.
- To provide the opportunity for pupils to express preferences, communicate needs, make choices, make decisions and choose options that other people act on and respect.
- To provide the opportunity to interact and communicate with a wide range of people.
- To provide pupils with the knowledge and understanding that every person is valued as an individual no matter what their disability, colour, sex or culture.
- To provide pupils with the knowledge and understanding to examine and make individual choices and decisions for their adult life.
- To provide the opportunity for pupils to increase their awareness and understanding of their environment and of the world.
- To provide a wide range of learning experiences for pupils in each key stage suitable for their age.

This publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

3. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish. This is split into categories of information known as 'classes'. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:
